

Text - Acts 16:6-15

Outline

- 1) Go Where God Says Go
- 2) Say What God Says Say
- 3) Trust God with the Results

Discussion Questions

- Todd shared how a couple of neighbors knocked on his door and invited him to church—and that’s how he eventually heard the gospel and believed. Who did God use in your story?
- Read Acts 16:6-7. Why would the Spirit close doors as we pursue his mission? Has that ever happened to you? If you’re honest, how has it affected you?
- Read Acts 16:8-10. Paul and his companions determined to “help” the people of Macedonia by preaching the gospel to them. What exactly is “the gospel”? Take a moment to rehearse it as a group.
- Todd said, “If you know enough gospel to be saved, then you know enough to share it.” What do you find keeps you from sharing it with freedom and delight?
 - Not certain who to tell
 - Not confident what to say
 - Not comfortable trusting God with the results
- How does Acts 16:11-15 encourage you in these struggles?