

February 21, 2021

Text - Psalm 87

Title - Glorious Tidings of Zion

Questions

- 1) When have you felt like an outsider because of where you are from? When have you felt like an insider because of where you are from?
- 2) Read Psalm 87. How does it speak of God's peculiar love for his people? How does it also speak of God's intention for other nations to be part of his people?
- 3) God has both a peculiar love for his people and also intention for the nations. How is this a motivation for and comfort in missions and evangelism?
- 4) What steps can Antioch take to become a racially/ethnically diverse church as seen in Psalm 87? How can you help Antioch become such a church?

Next Sunday's sermon passage - Luke 3:21-38